

White Coat Ceremony and Cadaveric Oath

The Department of Anatomy, Vedantaa Institute of Medical Sciences, successfully conducted the White Coat Ceremony and Cadaveric Oath on 17th December 2025, from 3.30 pm to 4.30 pm.

The programme marked an important milestone in the academic journey of medical students, symbolizing their entry into the medical profession with a commitment to ethics, compassion, and professionalism.

The ceremony was graced by the Dean, Dr. Daksha Amonkar, who delivered an inspiring message emphasizing the values, responsibilities, and dedication required in the medical profession. The Assistant Medical Superintendent, Dr. Mukund Khandelwal, also addressed the gathering and highlighted the importance of discipline, empathy, and respect towards patients and teachers.

The Cadaveric Oath was administered by Dr. Blessy Joseph, Assistant Professor, Department of Anatomy, wherein students solemnly pledged to treat cadavers with utmost respect and gratitude, acknowledging their vital role in medical education.

The programme concluded on a meaningful note, reinforcing ethical values and the sanctity of learning anatomy through cadaveric dissection.
